Helping Others Through Food -- Many Sundays our grocery cart is empty. Help fill it up by bringing in non-perishable food items. These items will then be brought to Family Services where they will distribute them. Personal care items are also accepted.

Helping Others Through Prayer & Comfort – In the sanctuary is a cabinet that stores many prayer shawls. These shawls have been prayed over, blessed and are ready to be given away. If you know of someone that needs to be wrapped in prayer and love, please take a shawl and give it to them. There are also cards of comfort available if you would like to include one. Please fill out the small notebook so that we know where the shawls are going and can continue in prayer for that person.

Belonging Starts Here – On Wednesday, March 19 at 6pm there will be a community meeting at Crandall Library sponsored by groups such as Partnership for Community Belonging and Lower Adirondack PRIDE, to name two. Pastor Rich will be attending and invites you to join him in celebrating our diverse community and sharing resources. Flyers can be found on the entrance tables with details on how to RSVP or speak with Pastor Rich.
